

Barry L. Bequette, Ph.D.

Full Professor

School of Agriculture and Applied Sciences

Alcorn State University

E-mail

bequette@alcorn.edu

Office

201A – Extension and Research Complex

Office Phone

601-877-6714

Mobile Phone

601-443-3284

Educational Discipline/Degrees
Research Areas

Ph.D. Plant Physiology/Horticulture, Mississippi State Univ. 1985
MS Agriculture/Horticulture, Murray State University, 1980
BS Agriculture/Horticulture, Murray State University, 1979
Research Interests : Horticulture and Plant Physiology Related Research,
Technology in Agriculture

Courses Taught

AG 439 Internship (3) (Spring and Summer Terms)
PS 447 Forage Crops (3) Fall Terms
PS 316 General Horticulture (3) (UT) – Fall and Summer Terms
PS 316 L – General Horticulture Lab (1) (UT)– Fall and Summer Terms
PS 345 Landscape Gardening (3) (UT) – Spring Term
PS 270 Environmental Ecology (3) (UT) – Spring as needed
PS 478 Seminar in Agronomy (1) (UT) – Spring Terms
PS 479 Special Problems in Agronomy (1 or more) (UT) – Fall Terms
PS 610 Thesis Research (3)
PS 611 Thesis (3)
PS 612 Thesis (3)

Publications

Bequette, B.L. 2006. Mobile Wireless Internet Video: Bringing the Specialist into the Field Remotely. Journal of Extension, Volume 44, No. 3, Article 3.

Bequette, B.L. 2002. Operational Efficiency Review: How to Free Dollars for Extension Programs. Journal of Extension, Volume 40, No. 5.

Bequette, B.L., T.M. Blessington and J.A. Price. 1985. Influence of lighting systematics on the performance of two croton cultivars. HortScience 20:927-929.