

Alcorn State University

Thank you for your interest in Alcorn State University (ASU) School of Nursing. We have the following undergraduate programs to which you may apply:

- Associate of Science in Nursing (ASN) Program: Generic Option
- Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN) Program: Generic Option

The ASN Generic Option can be completed in 5 semesters of full-time study, which include the prerequisite and co-requisite courses. Minimum admission requirements for this option are: an 18 composite score on the ACT, an 18 sub score in math and reading on the ACT, and a GPA of 2.5. The BSN Generic Option can be completed in 8 semesters of full-time study, which includes the prerequisite courses. Minimum admission requirements for the BSN option are: a 21 composite score on the ACT and a GPA of 2.5. Both the ASN and BSN Generic Options require additional admission criteria and requirements for admission as outlined in the specific program requirements below.

Alcorn State University's School of Nursing has a very competitive selection process. Selections for program admission are based on a rating scale that is completed for each qualified applicant. Qualified applicants with complete files are ranked from highest to lowest based on the points reflected on the Generic ASN and BSN Selection Sheets (attached). Program selection begins with those applicants who have the highest number of total points and continues until all available seats are filled.

CLOSE OF BUSINESS JANUARY 31, 2024, IS THE DEADLINE for submission and receipt of both applications and all other required admission documents. There will be no exceptions granted to this deadline, regardless of reason.

Please remember, it is your responsibility to ensure that all documents needed to complete your application file have been received by the School of Nursing.

Please refer to the current ASU undergraduate catalog (https://www.alcorn.edu/uploaded/2022_-_2023_Undergraduate_Catalog.pdf) and the School of Nursing website (<https://www.alcorn.edu/academics/schools-and-departments/school-of-nursing>) for additional program information.
