Alcorn State University's School of Nursing has a very competitive selection process. Selections for program admission are based on a rating scale that is completed for each qualified applicant. Qualified applicants with complete files are ranked from highest to lowest based on the points reflected on the RN to BSN Selection Sheets (attached). Program selection begins with those applicants who have the highest number of total points and continues until all available seats are filled.

CLOSE OF BUSINESS ON AUGUST 15, 2023 IS THE DEADLINE for submission and receipt of both applications and all other required admission documents. There will be no exceptions granted to this deadline, regardless of reason.

Please remember, it is your responsibility to ensure that all documents needed to complete your application file have been received by the School of Nursing.

Please refer to the current ASU undergraduate catalog ([https://www.alcorn.edu/uploaded/2022 -
