

The advanced completers of the School Counseling program have not yet secured employment as school counselors, primarily due to the limited availability of open positions in the field. Therefore, data is currently unavailable.