

The advanced completers of the School Counseling program have not yet secured employment as school counselors, primarily due to the limited availability of open positions in the field. Therefore, the Satisfaction of Employers Survey data for this group is currently unavailable, as these individuals have not been employed in roles that align with their licensure area.